Cracking ThunderSoft Screen Recorder 10.7.0 Keygen [Latest]. to present oral argument in support of his petition. On November 14, 2001, he filed a supplementary submission setting forth additional facts, which was later followed on December 2, 2001, by a motion to reopen and reconsider the BIA's denial of his motion to reopen. The Board on February 12, 2002, denied his motion to reconsider. He now petitions this Court for review of the BIA's order denying his motion to reopen. Petitioner argues that the BIA erred in denying his motion to reopen on several grounds. First, he argues that the BIA erred in concluding that he did not establish "changed country conditions." He avers that the BIA erred in failing to consider that the conditions of the country remained the same after his May 27, 2000, filing of the motion to reopen. He also argues that the BIA's determination that country conditions have changed in Albania as the result of the Kosovo Serb war is erroneous. We review the denial of a motion to reopen under an abuse of discretion standard. Ekasinta v. Gonzales, 415 F.3d 1168, 1170 (10th Cir. 2005). Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 1003.2(c)(1),
